

First note

Today the 24th of July 2021 I finally got you the phone I always wanted but even better than I could imagine all thanks to God always providing and my super excellent boyfriend soon to be husband.

On this day I want to thank God so much for loving me even if I haven't been the best this year I have done the most unspeakable thing in this world and I am really sorry about it and I shall never repeat that mistake again.

I thank God for the gift of you Baby I thank God that I am doing this life thing with someone as sweet as you my love. I shall love you always through thick and thin baby I'm here for you always and forever.

Best,

Es
